

SAINT PAUL HOTEL CONTINUES POPULAR CHILDREN'S AND BUSINESS ETIQUETTE CLASSES WITH NEW SUMMER AND FALL DATES

June 24 and September 22, 2007 for Children's Etiquette Classes

June 14 and September 20, 2007 for Business Etiquette Classes

Saint Paul, Minn. (March 2007) – The Saint Paul Hotel has announced a series of new dates for its popular Children's and Business Etiquette Classes. Angelyn Davis, president and founder of Etiquette, Et Cetera, will again teach each class.

The Saint Paul Hotel's Etiquette Program offerings in the summer and fall 2007 include:

- Sunday, June 24 and Saturday, September 22, 2007: Children's Etiquette Class and Luncheon from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Offered for boys and girls ages eight to 13, this fun class and luncheon invites guests to participate in games and activities that teach proper introductions, meeting and greeting, dining etiquette and other social graces. A three-course lunch enables the students to practice their newly acquired skills. Each young person attending the luncheon will receive a take-home bag of goodies. Cost is $40 per child.

- Thursday, June 14 and Thursday, September 20, 2007: Business Etiquette Luncheon from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

This program will appeal to people who are just entering the work force, as well as to those who would like to polish or refresh their business etiquette knowledge. The session will help participants build confidence through question and answer opportunities, trivia challenges, and activities aimed at outlining proper etiquette for meetings, electronic and face-to-face communication, dining, and common entertainment situations, including the roles and responsibilities of hosts and guests. The three-hour program, including lunch and an etiquette handbook, will cost $50 per person.

Reservations can be made by calling (651) 228-3860.
