

THE SAINT PAUL HOTEL EARNS A SPOT ON CONDE NAST TRAVELER'S 2007 "GOLD LIST"

The Saint Paul Hotel is only Minnesota hotel to receive Gold List honor

Saint Paul, Minn. (January 2007) – Conde Nast Traveler Magazine, the United States' premier travel publication, has released its prestigious Gold List of the world's top hotels, resorts, and destinations, and has named The Saint Paul Hotel as its only hotel entry for the state of Minnesota and the entire Upper Midwest. The 2007 Gold List, based on ratings gathered from the annual Conde Nast readers' survey of more than 21,000 subscribers, aims to reflect a property's overall character by rating service, design, dining, rooms, and location. Conde Nast describes its hotel Gold List as "the best places to stay in the world."

"Being named to Conde Nast's Gold List is one of the highest honors a hotel can receive," notes Saint Paul Hotel General Manager Daniel Dick. "We are delighted that Conde Nast Traveler has once again recognized The Saint Paul Hotel as the finest hotel property in our region. This distinction gives our guests confidence that they are receiving the very best accommodations, service, and hospitality offered in the Upper Midwest."

The Saint Paul Hotel was also named to Conde Nast Traveler's Gold List in 2004. The current Gold List review notes that The Saint Paul Hotel "reminds you of the golden age of Hollywood," and gives highest marks for the Hotel's location, dining, and service.

Built in 1910, The Saint Paul Hotel, a member of the Historic Hotels of America, is located at 350 Market Street on Rice Park in downtown Saint Paul, Minnesota. The Saint Paul Hotel has received numerous awards, including the prestigious Four Diamond rating from AAA for 23 consecutive years.
