

SAINT PAUL HOTEL CONTINUES POPULAR KID'S ETIQUETTE CLASSES IN 2012

Classes scheduled for Feb. 12, May 6 and October 6, 2012

Saint Paul, Minn. (August 2011) — Since 2008 when the Saint Paul Hotel began teaching children's etiquette classes, hundreds of kids have learned to mind their manners. In 2012, the hotel will present the popular class with etiquette instructor Angelyn Davis on Feb. 12, May 6 and Oct. 6 from 10 am to 1 pm. The cost per child is $45. Reservations can be made by calling the hotel's special events department at 651-228-3860 or by visiting www.saintpaulhotel.com and clicking on special events.

The Children's Etiquette Class is a fun class and luncheon for boys and girls ages 8 to 13. The session engages participants in activities that help them learn proper introductions, meeting and greeting, dining etiquette, and other social graces. Children will be served a four-course lunch during which they practice their newly acquired skills. Each participant will also receive a take-home goodie bag. Angelyn Davis, president and founder of Twin Cities-based Etiquette, Et Cetera, will teach the classes.

Built in 1910, The Saint Paul Hotel is a member of the Historic Hotels of America and a member of the Preferred Hotel and Resort Group. Heralded as the Twin Cities' most established and elegant hotels, The Saint Paul Hotel is located at 350 Market Street on Rice Park in downtown Saint Paul, Minnesota. For additional information, call 651-292-9292 or 800-292-9292, or visit www.saintpaulhotel.com. The Saint Paul Hotel is managed by Morrissey Hospitality Companies (www.morrisseyhospitality.com).
