

THE ST. PAUL GRILL INVITES AREA SCOTCH AFICIONADOS TO JOIN ITS NEW SCOTCH CLUB

Scotch Club membership offers events, tastings, and opportunity to receive a complimentary pour of rare, $12,000-a-bottle Macallan 55

St. Paul, Minn. (January 2010) – The St. Paul Grill invites all fans of single malt scotch to join the new St. Paul Grill Scotch Club. By signing up for the complimentary club, members will receive a St. Paul Grill Scotch Club embossed card, entitling them to be notified of quality events and complimentary pours of various scotches. As Scotch Club members reach various milestones, such as having enjoyed a drink of each single-malt scotch in the Highland category on The Grill bar menu, they will be rewarded with a complimentary pour of a highly-acclaimed scotch from that region. All Scotch Club members who succeed in enjoying every scotch on The Grill bar's menu will receive a complimentary 1.5 oz. pour of limited-edition, 55-year-old Macallan single malt scotch, valued at $750.00.

St. Paul Grill Scotch Club members must be 21 years of age or older. There is no membership fee. Interested Scotch lovers can sign up in person at The St. Paul Grill or online at www.stpaulgrill.com.

“We know the Twin Cities is home to many scotch drinkers with sophisticated tastes who enjoy really fine scotch,” explains Randall Kahn, St. Paul Grill General Manager. “By starting The St. Paul Grill Scotch Club, we hope to provide everyone with a special opportunity to sample some new scotches, meet people with similar tastes and interests, and enjoy the best scotches from what we know to be the best scotch menu in the Upper Midwest, here at The St. Paul Grill Bar.”

St. Paul Grill Scotch Club members will receive the following benefits:

- Having all single malt scotches in the Highland category will entitle the member to receive a complimentary 1.5 oz. pour of Dalmore 21 year scotch (a $21 value);
- Having all single malt scotches in the Speyside category will entitle the member to receive a complimentary 1.5 oz. pour of Glenlivet 21 year (a $30 value);
- Having all single malt scotches in the Lowland, Campbeltown, Island and Islay categories will entitle the member to receive a complimentary 1.5 oz. pour of Laphroaig 30-year (a $42 value); and
- The St. Paul Grill's Facebook page will have an area exclusively for Scotch Club members, allowing them to communicate with one another and with the Grill Bar's knowledgeable staff.
- Quarterly events.

The Saint Paul Grill has long maintained a world-class bar menu, including a lengthy and impressive lineup of rare spirits and wines. In addition to the limited edition Macallan 55-year-old Scotch, The Grill Bar also offers six types of Macallan and premium wines.

Voted 2009 Best Restaurant by Mpls.-St. Paul Magazine, The St. Paul Grill is a local institution, featuring classic American grill entrées in an upscale yet casual environment. Open daily for lunch and dinner, with a well-known Sunday brunch and classic bar, The St. Paul Grill has been consistently acknowledged for its unbeatable service, food and ambiance.

This Saint Paul icon features a classic, yet surprisingly diverse menu, ranging from prime steaks and thick-cut chops, to succulent poultry and fresh seafood. The Grill is known for its classic bar, offering the Twin Cities finest selection of rare spirits and wines. Located adjacent to The Saint Paul Hotel in downtown Saint Paul, The St. Paul Grill overlooks beautiful Rice Park at 350 Market Street. For more information or reservations, please call The St. Paul Grill at 651-224-7455 or visit stpaulgrill.com. The St. Paul Grill is managed by Morrissey Hospitality Companies (www.morrisseyhospitality.com).

Founded in 1995, Morrissey Hospitality Companies has grown into the leading regional hospitality management company with three primary lines of business – Lodging, Restaurants and Sports and Entertainment. MHC manages The Saint Paul Hotel, The St. Paul Grill, Pazzaluna Urban Italian Restaurant & Bar, The Hotel Minneapolis – a Doubletree Hotel, restaurant Max, Wildside Caterers, East Bay Suites, Tria Restaurant and Bar, and RJs American Grill in St. Cloud. The company, is located in the Landmark Towers, 345 St. Peter Street, St. Paul, Minnesota. Learn more at morrisseyhospitality.com.

###

Media Contact: Peg Roessler, Roessler PR, 952-949-6550, PROess@aol.com