

SAINT PAUL HOTEL GARDENER, SARA RADMAN, WINS SAINT PAUL'S BRONZE BLOOM AWARD

Saint Paul, Minn. (January 2007) – On January 22, the City of Saint Paul Division of Parks and Recreation and the Saint Paul Garden Club honored The Saint Paul Hotel's Gardener and Groundskeeper, Sara Radman, with the 2006 Bronze Bloom award in the Business/Institutional category for her work in the Hotel's English garden. The Golden Bloom Awards, aimed at promoting gardening and recognizing outstanding gardeners within the Saint Paul city limits, were based on public nominations followed by judges' garden visits in August 2006. Radman received the third place "Bronze Bloom, Business/Institutional" award in a field of more than 90 nominees.

"The Saint Paul Hotel is so fortunate to have such a talented and dedicated gardener as Sara overseeing our facilities," notes The Saint Paul Hotel's General Manager, Daniel Dick. "By maintaining the Hotel's English garden, Sara creates a lush, urban oasis that is enjoyed by our guests and members of the downtown community alike. We are thrilled to have our garden, and our outstanding gardener, honored in this way."

Sara Radman joined The Saint Paul Hotel's staff as Gardener and Groundskeeper in 1999. Since that time, she has tended the Hotel's 6,500-square-foot English garden and overseen seasonal hotel decorations. Radman holds a Bachelor of Science in Horticulture degree from the University of Minnesota.

Built in 1910, The Saint Paul Hotel, a member of the Historic Hotels of America, is located at 350 Market Street on Rice Park in downtown Saint Paul, Minnesota. The Saint Paul Hotel has received numerous awards, including the prestigious Four Diamond rating from AAA for 23 consecutive years.
