Saint Paul, Minn. (July 2008) – As part of Minnesota Bride Magazine’s third annual “Best Of” Awards, The Saint Paul Hotel was recognized as the “Best Honeymoon Night Destination.” This marks the third consecutive year that The Saint Paul Hotel has been honored in this category.

In its July 2008 awards issue, Minnesota Bride Magazine had the following praise for its “Best Honeymoon Night Destination” award winner:

“After an exhausting day, newlyweds can collapse into 300 thread-count sheets and down pillows at The Saint Paul Hotel, which will celebrate its 100th anniversary in 2010. Special romance packages greet the couple with fresh flowers, tuxedo strawberries and champagne, in a stunning setting with views of Rice Park and the State Capitol. Couples can also arrange for breakfast in bed and bathrobes they can take home.”

“We are delighted to receive this honor from Minnesota Bride Magazine,” notes Saint Paul Hotel General Manager David Miller. “The Saint Paul Hotel has been honored and gratified to have been a part of so many couples’ weddings and special celebrations throughout our history. We are thrilled to have our commitment to service and our superb staff recognized in this way.”
